I. Welcome
   • Wayne A. Cornelius, Center for Comparative Immigration Studies

II. Introduction
   • Nathaniel H. Goetz, Forced Migration Laboratory

III. Forced Migration of the Bantu: A Brief History
   • Shahla A-Sepah, San Diego County Refugee Health Program

IV. The Bantu in Kakuma Camp, Kenya: Preparing for Resettlement
   • Bob Montgomery, International Rescue Committee

V. Roundtable Discussion

Moderator:
   • Jesse Mills, University of California, San Diego

Discussants:
   • Bob Montgomery, International Rescue Committee
   • Walter Lam, Alliance for African Assistance
   • Abdi Mohamoud, Horn of Africa
   • Shahla A-Sepah, San Diego County Refugee Health Program
   • Craig McIntosh, University of California, San Diego
   • Stephen Brown, La Jolla-Golden Triangle Rotary Club
   • Kathi Anderson, Survivors of Torture
   • David Gangsei, Survivors of Torture
   • Lejla Voloder, Catholic Charities
VI. Discussant Questions

- What are some of the core issues facing the Bantu in their resettlement?
  1. Health
  2. Education
  3. Self-Sufficiency
  4. Community Integration

- How can practitioners/stakeholders assist one another?

- What relationships and partnerships can be formed?

VII. Audience Question and Answer Session

VIII. Closing Remarks

- Nathaniel H. Goetz, Forced Migration Laboratory

IX. Informal Reception